Respostas: Explicite três pontos importantes de como esse estudante de computação Ari nos mostra um dia típico de sua vida.

01 - Development of self-confidence. He makes it clear that with the academic help of one of his teachers, he was able to not get nervous and remain firm in actions that tend to cause this discomfort.

02 - Teamwork. During the video, he shows that he had to participate in some actions that required group work, which is extremely important in the technology field.

03 - Challenging study routine. By showing his routine, he shows how challenging and tiring it is, since his course involves both theory and practice, in addition to requiring him to keep up with new technologies well to stay informed.
